THE SECOND EMPIRE

By PHILIP GUEDALLA. 16s. net.

Punch.—"Here is a brilliant close-packed book. Mr. Guedalla writes his history not as one who consults and transcribes documents, but as one who has so lived in the period that fact, comment, gossip, quotation, simply flow from the tip of his pen. It is a sympathetic study. . . . My best compliments to Mr. Guedalla."

By H. St. J. B. PHILBY, F.R.G.S., etc. In two volumes. Illust. 63s. net.

Times Literary Supplement.—"The whole book is a wonderful record of exploits crowned with astonishing success. . . . The Founders Medal of the Royal Geographical Society was never better deserved. . . . He seems to possess every qualification for an Arabian explorer, from the discerning eye to the equable temper, from sympathy to high courage. His literary style is just right for the description of such an epic journey."

Westminster Gazette.—"Katherine Tynan is one of the select few who can convey a picture which even the discerning realise to be just, for she writes with the greatest simplicity in selection and with perfect faithfulness as to expression. . . . This charming book."
THE WESTERN QUESTION IN GREECE AND TURKEYBy ARNOLD J. TOYNBEE. Maps. 18s. net.
New Statesman.—"Professor Toynbee is one of the few who have seen the Græco-Turkish conflict in its proper perspective. He writes as a scholar learned in the history of the past. . . . His book is the most important contribution to the literature of the Near Eastern question that has appeared since the close of the Great War."
